

Everybody Wants to Find a Friend

Kelly Duhl was walking to school
And saw some other kids ahead.
Silly Kelly thought she'd join her friends
But walked along alone instead.

And Billy Moore stood by the door
And wouldn't join the kids in play.
Silly Billy thought that no one cared
Till he listened to his teacher say . . .

Chorus:
Everybody wants to find a friend.
Everybody wants to find a friend.
Just say hello. Let "another body" know
That you want to play with them again.

And Sally Clark was sitting in the park
When she found a friend named Fred.
Silly Sally sulked while all alone,
Till remembering what her teacher said . . .

Chorus, repeat 3 times
