

That's What a Dad Would Do

If I could change the world a bit
Then you and I and every kid
Over the world
Could say what a dad would do...

He'd lift me up so I could see
He'd give me hugs and never leave
Oh, what a world
If that's what a dad would do.

And when it's time for bed
Every father will have read
A million books or more to his kid.

And the moon'll never rise
Until every girl and guy's
Been forgiven for whatever they did.

If every father everywhere
Could really bother, really care
Oh, what a world
We'd be coming to
If that's what a dad would do.

If that's what a dad would do.
